

CAPITAL DISTRICT CHAPTER
NEW YORK STATE BUILDING OFFICIALS CONFERENCE

August 10, 2018

President Mark Platel called the meeting to order.

President Mark Platel: At this time, the chapter's accountant has all materials necessary for completing incorporation.

First Vice President Dan Sherman: The deadline to submit scholarship applications has passed and they are now under review. The announcements of the awards will occur soon.

Two possible conference give away options are charging banks or duffle bags. The membership present was polled and members preferred the charger offer. The courses at the conference this year are worth 20 hours of credit. Monday will include 7 hours, Tuesday 8 and Wednesday 5. All DOS required disciplines will be met. The cost will remain the same. There will not be any hands on training. The dates of the conference are Oct 15th-17th.

Treasurer: Dan Sherman made a motion to dispense with the presentation of the Treasurer's report, the motion was seconded by Lou Vitelli and carried.

Secretary: Mark Platel made a motion to dispense with the reading of the last meeting's minutes, the motion was seconded by Ed Foley and carried.

Membership Committee: Andrew Fuller reported that the committee attended a home builder show at Rivers Casino. The interaction was well received as they spoke with vendors and patrons. Suggestions are welcome for more events for the committee to attend.

New Business: An email will be sent out in the near future soliciting interest in the Chapter's officer positions for next year.

The 90th annual state NYSBOC conference from Sept 19th-21st will be dedicated to John Flannigan.

Dominick Kasmauskas: The NYS Comptroller has published a survey related to the quality of Code Enforcement. It is available for viewing on their website.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Mark Platel, seconded by Dominck Kasmuaskas and carried.
